MESSAGE FROM FR. MIKE

FRMIKE@DMBK.ORG

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." This weekend the Church celebrates World Mission Sunday. We honor men and women who commit themselves to living and serving the Gospel outside of their homeland. We are proud of the men and women of our diocese who have given and continue to give their lives to mission by joining the many missionary communities such as Maryknoll, Franciscans, Salesians, and many more, some of whom parishioners have joined. The great thing about Brooklyn is that the world is here. The diversity of cultures and people is amazing. As Pope Francis calls us to be missionary disciples, we are mindful of the original Irish, Italian, and Germans who lived the Gospel and were missionaries in Williamsburg/Greenpoint. We also think of the newest missionary disciples who add to the mosaic of our parish and neighborhood, the Hispanics and Millennials. Never forget you are a missionary...and keep missionaries around the world in your thoughts and prayers.

It's hard to imagine that November is around the corner. November 1st is the Feast of All Saints; it is a Holy Day of Obligation in our diocese. We will have Mass at 9am at St Francis of Paola (as usual), Mass at 11:30 at St Cecilia Church, and a 6:30pm Mass in Spanish at St Nicholas. The following day is All Souls Day. The greatest gift we can give for our deceased loved ones is the gift of prayer. I invite you to bring pictures of your loved ones that have passed to the weekend Masses and place them on the altar so we can offer sacrifice of the Mass for them. Later in the month of November we celebrate Thanksgiving. We will have a special Mass as a parish community to be thankful for all the blessings we have. My thanks this year is for the gift of the people of Divine Mercy (but more to follow).

God's blessings and mine,
Fr. Mike

"Porque el Hijo del Hombre no vino para ser servido sino para servir y dar su vida en rescate por muchos". Este fin de semana la Iglesia celebra el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones. Honramos a hombres y mujeres que se comprometen a vivir y servir el Evangelio fuera de su tierra natal. Estamos orgullosos de los hombres y mujeres de nuestra diócesis que han dado y continúan dando sus vidas a la misión uniéndose a muchas comunidades misioneras como Maryknoll, Franciscanos, Salesianos y muchas más, algunas de las cuales se han unido feligreses. Lo bueno de Brooklyn es que el mundo está aquí. La diversidad de culturas y personas es asombrosa. Mientras el Papa Francisco nos llama a ser discípulos misioneros, tenemos presente a los irlandeses, italianos y alemanes originales que vivieron el Evangelio y fueron misioneros en Williamsburg/Greenpoint. También pensamos en los discípulos misioneros más nuevos que se suman al mosaico de nuestra parroquia y vecindario, los hispanos y los Millennials. Nunca olvides que eres misionero... y mantén a los misioneros de todo el mundo en tus pensamientos y oraciones.

Es difícil imaginar que noviembre está a la vuelta de la esquina. El 1 de noviembre es la Fiesta de Todos los Santos; es un Día Santo de Obligación en nuestra diócesis. Tendremos Misa a las 9am en San Francisco de Paola (como de costumbre), Misa a las 11:30 en la Iglesia de Santa Cecilia y Misa en español a las 6:30 pm en San Nicolás. El día siguiente es el Día de Todos los Difuntos. El mayor regalo que podemos dar a nuestros seres queridos fallecidos es el regalo de la oración. Los invito a traer fotografías de sus seres queridos que han pasado a las Misas del fin de semana y colocarlas en el altar para que podamos ofrecer el sacrificio de la Misa por ellos. Más adelante en el mes de noviembre celebramos el Día de Acción de Gracias. Tendremos una Misa especial como comunidad parroquial para agradecer por todas las bendiciones que tenemos. Mi agradecimiento este año es por el regalo del pueblo de la Divina Misericordia (pero habrá más por venir).

Las bendiciones de Dios y las mías,
Padre Mike

Do you enjoy singing?
Do you love singing at Mass?

Our parish music ministry and choir, which is led by our very talented music director, Carlos, is looking for male and female voices to sing primarily for the upcoming Liturgical Season of Advent and Christmas.

NO EXPERIENCE IS REQUIRED, just a love of liturgical music.

The commitment is for one weeknight rehearsal per week until Christmas. We will be singing at the later Mass on Christmas Eve and at the 12 Noon Mass on Christmas Day.

Our current choir members began rehearsing this past Monday, October 14th from 7-8:30 pm.

Please consider joining us in this very enjoyable and rewarding ministry for our parish.

Please contact the rectory or speak to Father Mike for more information.
