MESSAGE FROM FR. MIKE

FRMIKE@DMBK.ORG

In the Gospel we read this weekend about the blind man, Bartimaeus. As he hears of Jesus walking by he yells out "Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me." He lacked sight but had a vision of faith. I have been reading the Agnes King book "A Rare Parish" and we truly are. How our founding parishioners and pastors had the vision to build Churches, schools, gyms (one with a bowling alley!), a maternity hospital, convents and a Brothers' House, and much more when the odds seemed against them. They are true visionaries. Of course, secularization and changing demographics have and are changing our neighborhood, but we should always have the same vision of bearing witness to the faith in our circumstances. Bartimaeus teaches us to call out to Jesus even when other voices are louder and to see the vision of Jesus, even for us who have sight.

As we begin the month of November this coming Friday we begin with prayer to mark the Feast of All Saints. It is a Holy Day of Obligation in the Brooklyn Diocese. We will have a Mass at St Francis at 9AM (as usual), 11:30AM at St Cecilia (Church, not chapel), and a 6:30PM Mass at St. Nicholas in Spanish. On the weekend of the 2nd and 3rd we will pray for the deceased. If you wish, please bring a picture of your deceased loved ones and they will be placed on the altar during the sacrifice of the Mass that weekend. Our Diocese has asked us to take up a collection for the victims of Hurricanes Helene and Milton in the southeast. On the weekend of November 9th and 10th we will have a second collection for the hurricane victims. Please help them in rebuilding their lives after the disaster. As much as I hate taking up a second collection it is a noble cause.

Also, November 11th is Veterans Day. The office will be closed but we will have regular Monday Mass schedule. We honor the Veterans in our parish and thank them for protecting our country and freedoms. Last Sunday the Italian Apostolate hosted its annual procession and Mass which started at St Francis of Paola and ended at Mount Carmel. I thank all who participated in bearing witness to Italian culture, faith, and heritage. I'm glad our activities are giving life and witness from Mount Carmel and Our Lady of the Snows, 9/11 Memorial Mass, San Donato Mass, Rosarian Triduum, St Teresa Triduum and installation of new members, dueling pianos fundraiser, and hopefully more to come.

God's blessings and mine,
Fr. Mike

En el Evangelio leemos este fin de semana sobre el ciego Bartimeo. Cuando oye que Jesús pasa, grita: "Jesús, hijo de David, ten piedad de mí". Le faltaba vista pero tenía una visión de fe. He estado leyendo el libro de Agnes King "A Rare Parish" y realmente lo estamos. Cómo nuestros feligreses y pastores fundadores tuvieron la visión de construir iglesias, escuelas, gimnasios (¡uno con bolera!), un hospital de maternidad, conventos y una casa de hermanos, y mucho más cuando las probabilidades parecían en contra. Son verdaderos visionarios. Por supuesto, la secularización y los cambios demográficos han cambiado y están cambiando nuestro vecindario, pero siempre debemos tener la misma visión de dar testimonio de la fe en nuestras circunstancias. Bartimeo nos enseña a invocar a Jesús incluso cuando otras voces son más fuertes y a ver la visión de Jesús, incluso para nosotros que tenemos vista.

Al comenzar el mes de noviembre, el próximo viernes comenzamos con oración para conmemorar la Fiesta de Todos los Santos. Es un día santo de precepto en la Diócesis de Brooklyn. Tendremos una misa en San Francisco a las 9am (como de costumbre), a las 11:30am en Santa Cecilia (iglesia, no en la capilla) y una misa a las 6:30pm en San Nicolás en español. El fin de semana del día 2 y 3 rezaremos por los difuntos. Si lo desea, traiga una fotografía de sus seres queridos fallecidos y serán colocadas en el altar durante el sacrificio de la Misa ese fin de semana. Nuestra Diócesis nos ha pedido que hagamos una colecta para las víctimas de los huracanes Helene y Milton en el sureste. El fin de semana del 9 y 10 de noviembre tendremos una segunda colecta para las víctimas del huracán. Ayúdelos a reconstruir sus vidas después del desastre. Por mucho que odie hacer una segunda colección, es una causa noble.

Además, el 11 de noviembre es el Día de los Veteranos. La oficina estará cerrada pero tendremos el horario regular de misa los lunes. Honramos a los veteranos de nuestra parroquia y les agradecemos por proteger nuestro país y nuestras libertades. El domingo pasado, el Apostolado italiano organizó su procesión anual y misa que comenzó en San Francisco de Paula y terminó en el Monte Carmelo. Agradezco a todos los que participaron en dar testimonio de la cultura, la fe y el patrimonio italianos. Me alegro de que nuestras actividades estén dando vida y testimonio desde el Monte Carmelo y Nuestra Señora de las Nieves, la Misa Conmemorativa del 11 de septiembre, la Misa de San Donato, el Triduo Rosariano, el Triduo de Santa Teresa y la instalación de nuevos miembros, duelo de pianos para recaudar fondos y, con suerte, más. por venir.

Las bendiciones de Dios y las mías,
Padre Mike

Do you enjoy singing?
Do you love singing at Mass?

Our parish music ministry and choir, which is led by our very talented music director, Carlos, is looking for male and female voices to sing primarily for the upcoming Liturgical Season of Advent and Christmas.

NO EXPERIENCE IS REQUIRED, just a love of liturgical music.

The commitment is for one weeknight rehearsal per week until Christmas. We will be singing at the later Mass on Christmas Eve and at the 12 Noon Mass on Christmas Day.

Our current choir members began rehearsing this past Monday, October 14th from 7-8:30 pm.

Please consider joining us in this very enjoyable and rewarding ministry for our parish.

Please contact the rectory or speak to Father Mike for more information.
